The Lyndales team uses the right mix of specialism and experience to give it's clients the best service possible, whatever their needs.

John Segal has been in practice for 35 years. During that time he's accumulated a wealth of experience on commercial property matters, advising companies and individuals in the UK and internationally.

Dealing with landlord and tenant issues and private client work, John is a firm believer in providing each client with the bespoke service they deserve. This approach means his clients always have direct and continuous contact with him throughout the transaction.

Kay Piper is an experienced commercial property solicitor who has particular expertise dealing with office leases and lease renewals. She understands and prioritises the commercial needs of her clients in order to achieve the best result considering any time and financial pressures.

We pride ourselves on our friendly, personal approach and would be happy at any time to talk to you on the telephone to help with advice or to fix up an initial discussion meeting, so don't hesitate to call or email.
