WILLS
Making a will and reviewing it from time to time is the only way to ensure your hard earned money, property and other assets go to the people and organisations that you want to benefit. Lyndales can help with expert, friendly and easy to understand advice including lifetime gifts; inheritance tax planning and managing your estate.

If you have recently suffered a loss and need assistance in dealing with the estate of a loved one, Lyndales can advise you through the whole process. Whilst already a stressful and emotional time, matters can become more complicated if your loved one didn't leave a will or died abroad. Whether you require us to undertake the complete administration of the Estate or simply provide a service of 'hand holding', we are here to help make the whole process as efficient and painless as possible.

The Lyndales team uses the right mix of specialism and experience to give its clients the best service possible, whatever their needs.

With 30 years' experience of private client work, Stan Harris combines professional expertise with pragmatism and humour. A particular strength of his is his willingness to find effective solutions for tricky situations.

Working with Stan is Paminder Johal an associate solicitor with over 14 years post qualified experience. Paminder has a 'can do' attitude and will always to her best to accommodate a client's individual needs and requirements. Paminder is a member of STEP (Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners) and is currently working towards becoming a specialist in her field by studying for the renowned STEP Diploma in Trusts and Estates.

Together and separately Stan and Paminder provide clients with invaluable advice as to how best realise their wishes in their lifetime and on death. With a blend of sensitivity and professionalism, Stan and Paminder assist those left with the responsibility of administering a loved one's affairs.

We pride ourselves on our friendly, personal, no nonsense approach and would be happy at any time to talk to you on the telephone to help with advice or to fix up an initial discussion meeting, so don't hesitate to call or email.
