WILLS
Making a will and reviewing it from time to time is the only way to ensure your hard earned money, property and other assets go to the people and organisations that you want to benefit. Lyndales can help with expert, friendly and easy to understand advice including lifetime gifts; inheritance tax planning and managing your estate.

If you have recently suffered a loss and need assistance in dealing with the estate of a loved one, Lyndales can advise you through the whole process. Whilst already a stressful and emotional time, matters can become more complicated if your loved one didn't leave a will or died abroad. Whether you require us to undertake the complete administration of the Estate or simply provide a service of 'hand holding', we are here to help make the whole process as efficient and painless as possible.

The Lyndales team uses the right mix of specialism and experience to give its clients the best service possible, whatever their needs.

With 30 years' experience of private client work, Stan Harris combines professional expertise with pragmatism and humour. A particular strength of his is his willingness to find effective solutions for tricky situations.

Working with Stan is Sangeeta Moore. Sangeeta qualified in 2010 and has throughout her career specialised in all aspects of private client work, including advising on a wide range of issues affecting individuals including drafting wills of differing complexity and with multijurisdictional tangents, estate administration, Lasting Powers of Attorney and Trusts.

Together and separately Stan and Sangeeta provide clients with invaluable advice as to how best to realise their wishes in their lifetime and on death. Combining sensitivity with professionalism, Stan and Sangeeta are there to guide and support those left with the responsibility of administering the affairs of a deceased love one.

We pride ourselves on our friendly, personal, no nonsense approach and would be happy at any time to talk to you on the telephone to help with advice or to fix up an initial discussion meeting, so don't hesitate to call or email.
